

January 25, 2025

MUNICIPAL LEADERS ELECTED TO SERVE AS 2025 OFFICERS OF MMA MEMBER GROUPS

BOSTON, MA – Member groups representing the state’s mayors, councillors, town managers and administrators, and select board members elected their 2025 officers at their annual business meetings held during the recent Massachusetts Municipal Association’s “Connect 351” conference in Boston. Women Elected Municipal Officials (WEMO) also named its 2025 steering committee at its annual luncheon at the convention.

The MMA is a private, non-partisan, non-profit organization serving cities and towns across Massachusetts. Its mission is to improve the effectiveness of local government in the Commonwealth through public policy advocacy, membership education, intergovernmental relations, services to cities and towns, increased public awareness, and fostering unity.

MMA’s member groups provide programming, networking, and sharing of best practices to help public officials in their daily work supporting their communities.

The following have been elected as the officers of the Massachusetts Mayors’ Association:

President: Michael Nicholson, Gardner
1st Vice President: Joshua Garcia, Holyoke
2nd Vice President: Michelle Wu, Boston
District 1: Michael McCabe, Westfield
District 2: Samantha Squalia, Fitchburg
District 3: Kassandra Gove, Amesbury
District 4: Breanna Lungo-Koehn, Medford
District 5: Robert Sullivan, Brockton